

Trafalgar Junior School: Computing Curriculum Overview

Subject	Intent	Implementation	Impact
Computing Skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • digital literacy, including on-line safety • information technology • computer science 	The curriculum will ensure children will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • be responsible, competent, confident, resilient and creative users of information and communication • use the internet safely and responsibly • evaluate and apply information technology, eg. word processing, presentation and spreadsheet software, to solve problems • understand and apply principles and concepts of programming • analyse problems and write computer programs in order to solve problems 	We follow the national curriculum in computing, supported by specialists, such as LGfL and J2e. The computing overview outlines what is covered in each year group and how the subject is sequenced. Knowledge and skills build to ensure there is progression through our curriculum. Lessons include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the purposeful use of technology to create, organise and develop digital content • the use of computer programming to analyse and solve problems • exposure to a range of digital hardware, software and internet content in order to develop responsible, competent, confident, resilient and creative users of information and communication technology • understanding and strategies of how to stay safe online • access to a specialist classroom of computers and a range of digital devices, such as iPads, data loggers and digital cameras • secure access to the internet through J2e and London Grid for Learning (LGfL), both of which offer a range of software applications designed for primary children, and are also the foundation of our home learning offer • adaption to suit all abilities Timing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • taught weekly Supported by: J2e, London Grid for Learning (LGfL), National Association for Advisors for Computers in Education (NAACE)	Assessment includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • pupil self-assessment • on-going assessment during lessons with teachers adapting planning as required, eg. Q&As, regular recaps of prior learning; quizzes; end of unit tests • assessment criteria within the planning support teachers in assessing where the children are with their learning Monitoring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • on-going check-ins between subject leads and teachers • regular monitoring by SLT and subject leads on a timetabled cycle