17 May 2024
Summer 1, Week 27

This week

EYFS

We have been working very hard on our phonics in Reception. Please remember to practise the tricky words that go home on a weekly basis, alongside their handwriting and maths homework. So far this half term we have learnt 'said, so, have, like, some, come, love, do, were, here, little, says, there, when, what and one.'

Next week we are going to be making our own musical instruments. Please send in any yoghurt pots, small bottles or dried pulses (like lentils) that we can use to make them.

Open Water Dangers

Please see attached letter from the Metropolitan Police.

Vandalism in Parks – message from the Police

You may, or may not, be already aware that there is a photo circulating on social media showing a nail being welded to a slide and swing in a public park. Park Services for Richmond and Wandsworth Council have been inundated with enquiries about this. They have viewed the photo, and that at this stage do not recognise it to be a local playground. In addition to this, a Daily Mail article has been released yesterday depicting the same photos. It appears this playground is actually in Oxfordshire.

We are aware of this incident, and whilst there are no local concerns at this stage, we ask that you remain vigilant when attending your local parks.

If you do have any issues or concerns then please contact 101. Or in an emergency contact 999.
